We shall pass through this world but once. Any good, therefore, that we can show, let us do it now. Let us not defer, for we may never pass this way again.

Dedication

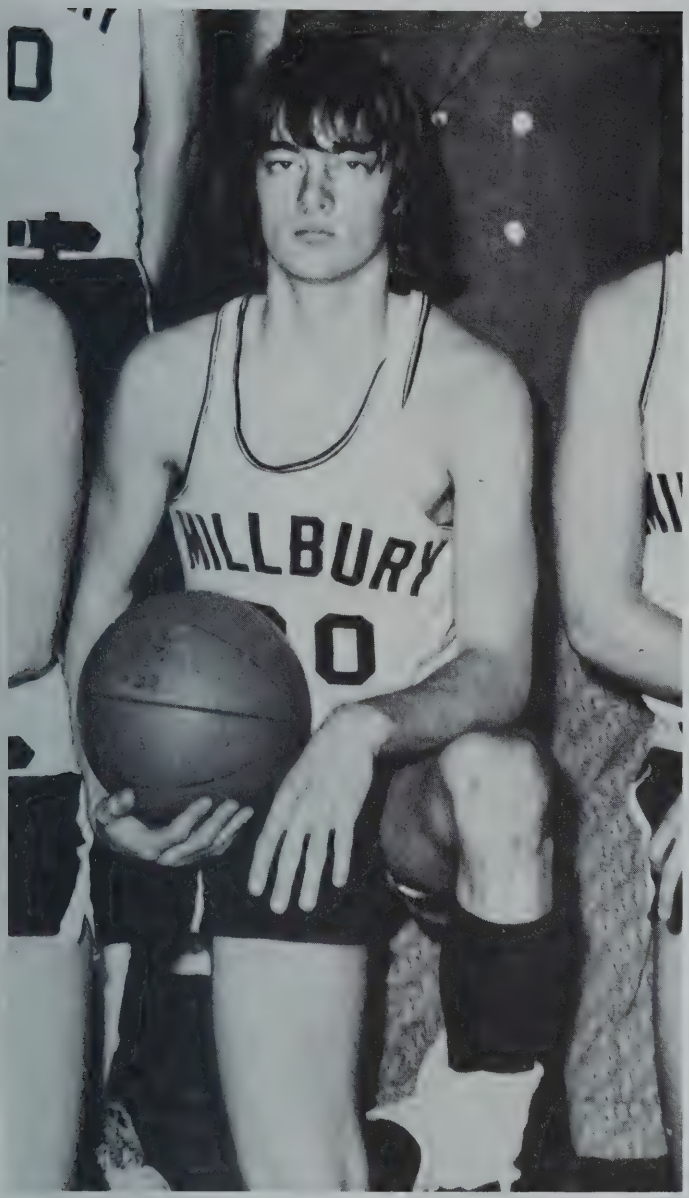
We, the Class of 1974, would like to dedicate our AFTERMATH to Mrs. Joan Tinsley. From Donkey Basketball games to helping us decide what to be when "we grow up," she was there. We would like to thank her.

"We are born for a higher destiny than that of earth; there is a realm where the rainbow never fades, where the stars will be spread before us like islands that slumber on the ocean, and where the beings that pass before us like shadows will stay in our presence forever."

In Memoriam

Donny Witkowski



1956-1974

We have lost Donny to something better than we could ever offer him; a land of peace where he will feel no pain, and where his rainbows will never end. We will always miss him, and remember him as an important part of our class, and as a well-loved friend.

Our high school years have been a time of growth. We have helped each other grow into individuals. Down to the last detail we are all different. Everyone has his own fingerprints. Recognize and rejoice in that endless variety. The white lights of the future are broken up by these human prisms into the colors of the rainbow. We will now take our own color in the pattern and be just that.

There is a tide in the affairs of men, and yet as things flow, they circulate,
and the ebb always balances the flow . . .
Go where we will, we will discover infinite changes
in our lives.

Life, so they say, is but a game —
And they let it slip away.
Love, like the Autumn sun, should
Be dying but it's only just begun.
Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we're goin?
And all the secrets of the universe,
Whisper in our ears and all the
Years will come and go and take us
Up, always up
We may never pass this way again,
We may never pass this way again.

Dreams, so they say, is but — a game —
And they let them drift away.
Peace, like the silent dove, should be
Flyin' but it's only just begun.
Like Columbus in the olden days.
We must gather all our courage,
Sail our ships out on the open
Sea, cast away our fears and all
The years will come and go and
Take us up, always up — so
We wanna laugh while the laughin' is easy,
We wanna cry if it makes it worth while
We may never pass this way gain,
That's why we want it with you.
